Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Every druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

PROMINENT WINCHESTER MAN SUED FOR HEART-BREAKING

Alleging he refused to keep an engagement to marry her, Miss Helen Rose Barlow, of Lexington, has filed suit in the Jefferson Circuit Court for $50,000 breach of promise damages from Phelps Renick, wealthy young bachelor, of Winchester, and nephew of Abraham Renick, president of the McCombs Producing & Refining Company, a large oil corporation. Her petition states that the younger Renick owns property valued at $75,000.

Miss Barlow and Mr. Renick met when she was attending a business college in Winchester, according to M. H. Thacker, who is associated with J. A. Edge, Lexington, as her attorney.

They became engaged July 6, the petition alleges, but on or about September 1, Mr. Renick "announced his purpose not to marry this plaintiff and refused to converse with her or see her."

During the alleged engagement Miss Barlow says, Mr. Renick frequently took her to Winchester "and exhibited to her large farming enterprises and an elegant residence owned and controlled by him and disclosed to this plaintiff the happiness and pleasure that would belong to them upon the consummation of their marriage agreement and persuaded this plaintiff not to engage in any business enterprise nor prepare herself for a business career, and caused this plaintiff to cease her studies in a business college in which she was preparing herself for a business career."

Mr. Thacker said Miss Barlow came to Kentucky from the East.

OFFERS ADVICE ON ARBOR DAY EVENT.

Following the proclamation of Governor Black designating Friday, October 31, as Arbor Day for Kentucky, J. E. Barton, commissioner of forestry and geology, is prepared to furnish information about trees to plant, methods of planting and other features which will tend to make a success of the event.

Since Arbor Day was not generally celebrated during the period of the war the Governor is of the opinion that it is appropriate that the wide observance of the occasion throughout the State should be resumed at this time. He calls upon the public for a wide observance of the day, especially with the idea in mind of planting trees as memorials to soldiers and sailors killed during the war.

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT ASKS HELP OF ALLIES.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The Italian Government has appealed to the allied Powers to send an allied force, exclusive of Italians, to drive d'Annunzio from Fiume, a report received here which is considered to be reliable, stated.

It is understood that the American naval authorities here, who control the operations in the Adriatic, have declined any assistance whatsoever, pending final decision from Washington or the peace delegates in Paris.

The Italian Government, it is reported, has pointed out in its appeal that it would be difficult for Italy to handle the situation in view of d'Annunzio's popularity with the Italian public, and also, because the Fiume decision has been a thorn in the side of the Italians.
